REPORT TO THE LISTENER

Sharon Maeda

KPFK is proud and pleased to announce its newest program with the working title "Challenge," scheduled at 3:30 to 4:15 on the second and fourth Thursdays of the month — changing to every Thursday starting November 6. As the Pacifica — L.A. voice of the community of people with disabilities, it is co-hosted and produced by Mario Casetta, Carol Gill, and Henry Slucki. Mario is known to all KPFK subscribers as Mr. Ethnic — folk dance instructor and folk music enthusiast — and has had a long interest in the experience of oppressed minorities. His consciousness concerning disabilities was enhanced significantly when he had a stroke in 1981. Carol, a clinical psychologist in private practice in the San Fernando Valley, is on the faculty at the University of Southern California in the Department of Occupational Therapy. She has been disabled since early childhood as a result of polio and uses a powered wheelchair. A disability rights' activist, she serves on the Los Angeles County Commission on Disabilities and is a Board Member of the Westside L.A. Chapter of the California Association of the Physically Handicapped. A University of Illinois Ph. D., she works clinically with disabled and non-disabled adolescents and adults. Henry, a behavior analyst at the USC Medical School, in non-disabled and has been conducting research applying conditioning procedures to people with brain injuries. He is President-elect of the Southern California District of the National Rehabilitation Association and is an activist in several civil rights organization, especially the American Association of University Professors. A U.C.L.A. Ph. D. in experimental psychology, he chairs the Certification Board of the Association for Behavior Analysis, an International Organization and serves on the editorial board of several behavior journals.

KPFK FOLIO

OCTOBER 1986

OCTOBER PROGRAMMING CONTINUED...

8:00 WHAT A LONG, STRANGE TRIP—In commemoration of the day that the state of California banned the use, sale and possession of LSD. A nightlong perspective on Dr. Hoffman's curious discovery centering around a concert by those eternal survivors of 60's psychedelia. The Grateful Dead. The program will consist of music and interviews, including two very recent interviews with LSD researcher Dr. Oscar Janiger and CIA expert Martin A. Lee, author of ACID DREAMS: LSD and CIA and the Sixties Rebellion. An interview with Martin A. Lee, author of the recent book on LSD and the Company, exposing the strange history of this odd partnership that inadvertently created the radical hip milieu of the 60's. A talk with Bob Young.

9:00 DR. OSCAR JANIGER—The noted researcher chats and speculates with Jay Kugelmann and Bob Young. LSD and its place in the world both during and since the 60's. The future of psychedelia.

10:00 NIGHT OF THE GRATEFUL DEAD—Those noted and notorious purveyors of psychedelic rock and roll, in a recent concert. Something to soothe the Deadheads until Jerry's back on his feet. Tape will either come from KPFK or the host's private collection.

AM

1:00 THE JEFFERSON AIRPLANE—and the San Francisco Sound. Ralph J. Gleason, one of the original founders of Rolling Stone and noted Bay Area music writer, discusses the development of Bay Area music with KPFK's Gene Marline. 1968 Pac Arch #BB4060. THE ACID TEST Ken Kesey, the Merry Pranksters and the Grateful Dead recorded at one of the original tests. A Merry time was had by all who recall. Produced by Laurie Garrett of KPFK & 1967 Pac Arch #A20263.

2:00 CHANGES—Recorded in Sausalito, June 16, 1967 on the founding of the Haight-Ashbury District, the nation's first psychedelic underground paper. We hear Alan Watts, Gary Snyder, Allen Ginsberg and Tim Leary discussing LSD, art and life. Pac Arch #BB1849.

3:00 ONE BILLION SECONDS LATER—The social history of LSD-25. A documentary look at LSD and its effects on society as produced by Ad. Geynis. Music and sound and color. Pac Arch #BC2215.

4:30 THE STRAIGHT THEATRE OPENING—Neal Cassidy, legendary model for Kerouac's Dean Moriarty, and his friends the Grateful Dead performed for the opening of Haight St. Straight Theatre in early September of 1967 as the Haight-Ashbury scene collapsed. Rarely heard recording of Neal and the Dead from the host's private collection. Supplemented by more music to evoke earlier days, sending the listener into the clear, cold light of dawn. Times are all approximations. Music will accompany the entire night.
